

“Bringing the gift of laughter.”

Jan Streader
Actress

“I love interacting with children or older people in nursing homes, hospitals, seniors' residences and other facilities as a member of the StreetFest Comedy Cares troupe sponsored by EPCOR. I've been playing 'Mrs. Collywobbles' for about a decade now. She's the cheeky Carmen Miranda of cockney cleaning ladies and she has a magical feather duster, an unfortunate rumbling stomach and an apron full of surprises. It's so gratifying to hear people respond with everything from giggles to belly laughs. I really think laughter does have healing power.”
